

22-11-2007 – Comments on press publication

In relation to the publication dated 21/11/2007 of newspaper “Symvoulos” and following the relevant letter by the Capital Markets Commission posed to us, SFAKIANAKIS S.A. notifies that our company in the frame of its business policy development, does examine various business opportunities and proposals with various active companies without however any case to be concrete or communicable. Referring the above publication our company denies it, and clarifies that no negotiation or discussions have taken place with the referred companies in this publication.